Enacting clause.

BE it enacted by the Governor, the Legislative Council and House of Assembly, in Legislative Session convened, as follows:—

Penalty for cruelty to animals.

1. (1) If any person—

- (a) Shall cruelly beat, kick, illtreat, abuse, bind, override, over-drive, over-load, drive when over-loaded, expose, abandon to die, neglect, fail to provide with sufficient food and drink, shelter or protection from the weather or to otherwise properly care for, kill, mutilate, torture, infuriate or terrify, deprive of necessary sustenance, drive or work when unfit for labour, any animal; or shall cause or procure, or being the owner, possessor or person having the charge or custody of any animal, shall permit such animal to be so used; or shall, by doing or omitting to do any act or causing or procuring the commission or omission of any act, cause any unnecessary suffering, or being the owner permit any unnecessary suffering to be so caused to any animal; or

- (b) Shall convey or carry, or cause or procure, or, being the owner, permit to be conveyed or carried, any animal in such manner or position as to cause it any unnecessary suffering; or
- (c) Shall cause, procure, or assist at the fighting or baiting of any animal; or shall keep, use, manage, or act or assist in the management of, any premises or place for the purpose, or partly for the purpose, of the fighting or baiting of any animal, or shall permit any premises or place to be so kept, managed or used or shall receive, or cause or procure any person to receive, money for the admission of any person to such premises or place; or
- (d) Shall wilfully, without reasonable cause or excuse, administer or cause or procure or, being the owner, permit such administration of any poisonous or injurious drug or substance to any animal, or shall wilfully without reasonable cause or excuse cause any such substance to be taken by any animal; or
- (e) Shall subject, or cause, or procure, or being the owner shall permit to be subjected any animal to any operation which is performed without due care and humanity; or
- (f) Shall cut the solid part of the tail of any horse in the operation known as "docking," or cause the same to be done, or assist in such cutting, or, being the owner, shall permit any horse to be so cut ; or

(g) Shall connive with another in doing any of the acts beformentioned ;

Such person shall be guilty of cruelty within the meaning of this Act, and shall be liable, upon summary conviction, to a fine not exceeding seventy-five dollars, or alternatively, or in addition thereto, to be imprisoned, with or without hard labour, for any term not exceeding three months.

(2) For the purposes of this section any owner, possessor, or person having the charge or custody shall be deemed to have permitted cruelty within the meaning of this Act if he shall have failed to exercise reasonable care and supervision in respect of the protection of the animal therefrom.

Proviso as to permissive cruelty—imprisonment alternative only.

Provided that where an owner, possessor, or person having the custody or charge is convicted of permitting cruelty within the meaning of this Act by reason only of his having failed to exercise such care and supervision, he shall not be liable to imprisonment without the option of a fine.

Killing of animals for human food.

(3) Nothing in this section shall apply to the commission or omission of any act in the course of the killing, or the preparation for the killing, of any animal as food for mankind, unless such killing or such preparation be accompanied by the infliction of reasonably avoidable and unnecessary suffering.

Justice may order destruction of animal injured by cruelty.

2. Where the owner or possessor of an animal is convicted of cruelty within the meaning of this Act, it shall be lawful for any Justice of the Peace, if he be satisfied that it would be cruel to keep the animal alive, to direct that it be destroyed, and to assign it to any suitable person for that purpose, and the person to whom such animal is assigned shall, as soon as possible destroy the animal, or cause or procure it to be destroyed, in his presence without any unnecessary suffering. Reasonable expenses incurred in destroying the animal may be ordered by the Justice to be paid by the owner, or person so convicted, and thereupon shall be recoverable summarily as a civil debt.

Provided that if the owner object to such destruction, it shall not be ordered but upon the evidence of a ^{Proviso as to} ~~proof that~~ ^{destruction} ~~necessary.~~ Veterinary Surgeon, or if none be available, then upon the agreement of two reputable persons.

3. If any person shall by cruelty to any animal within the meaning of this Act do or cause to be done any damage or injury to the animal or to any person or property, he shall upon conviction of cruelty under this Act, pay as compensation to the person who shall sustain damage or injury as aforesaid, such sum not exceeding fifty dollars, as the Justice before whom he is convicted may consider reasonable.

But this section shall not—

- (a) Prevent the taking of any other legal proceedings in respect of any such damage or injury, provided that a person be not twice proceeded against in respect of the same claim, nor
- (b) Affect the liability of any person proceeded against and punished under this Act for an offence of cruelty within the meaning of this Act.

4. (1) Any person who impounds or confines, or causes to be impounded or confined any animal, shall, while the animal is so impounded or confined, supply it with a sufficient quantity of wholesome food and water, and, if he fails to do so he shall be liable upon summary conviction, to a penalty not exceeding twenty-five dollars.

- (2) If any animal is impounded or confined and is without sufficient suitable food and water for six successive hours or longer, any person may, for the purpose of supplying the animal therewith, enter the place where such animal shall be confined.

- (3) The reasonable cost of food and water so supplied to any animal impounded or confined shall be recoverable summarily from the owner of the animal as a civil debt.

Penalty for employing dogs
to draw excessive loads.

5 If any person shall use, or cause or procure, or, being the owner, shall permit, to be used any dog of less weight than thirty pounds for the purpose of drawing, or helping to draw, any vehicle, cart, carriage, slide, catamaran, truck or barrow, or any load, when such load exceeds, or any such vehicle and load together exceed thirty pounds weight, he shall be liable upon conviction, in respect of the first offence to a fine not exceeding ten dollars, and, in respect of any succeeding offence, to a fine not exceeding thirty dollars

Power of Constable to cause destruction or removal of diseased or injured animal.

6. (1) If any Constable finds any animal so diseased or so severely injured or in such physical condition that in his opinion it ought to be destroyed, he shall forthwith inform the owner of the animal's condition, and if the owner refuses to consent to the destruction of the animal, or cannot at once be found, such Constable shall, if any Veterinary Surgeon resides within a reasonable distance summon such Veterinary Surgeon. If such Veterinary Surgeon is of opinion that the animal is mortally injured, or so severely injured, or so diseased, or in such physical condition that to keep it alive would be cruel, or if a Veterinary Surgeon shall not reside within a reasonable distance of the place where such animal is found and any two reputable persons shall concur with the Constable that to keep such animal alive would be cruel, such Constable shall, without the consent of the owner, slaughter the animal, or procure or cause it to be slaughtered in his presence, in such manner and by such means as to inflict upon it as little suffering as possible, and such Constable shall not incur any liability for such killing.

- (2) If any Veterinary Surgeon summoned under this section certifies that the injured animal can, without cruelty, be removed, it shall be the duty of the person in charge of the animal to cause it forthwith to be removed with as little suffering as possible, and, if that person fail to do so, the Constable may, without his consent, cause the animal forthwith to be so removed.

- (3) Any expenses reasonably incurred by any Constable in carrying out the provisions of this section, including the expenses of the Veterinary Surgeon summoned by the Constable, (and whether the animal is slaughtered under this section or not) may be recovered from the owner summarily as a civil debt, and if not so recoverable shall be defrayed out of the funds of the Colony.

- (4) For the purposes of this section the expression "animal" means any horse, mule, ass, bull, cow, dog, sheep, goat or pig.

7. (1) A Constable may upon his own view or upon the complaint and information of any person who shall declare his name and place of abode, without warrant apprehend any person who he has reason to believe is guilty of an offence under this Act, punishable by imprisonment without the option of a fine.

Power of Constable to arrest offenders without warrant, and to provide for safe custody of vehicles or animals.

- (2) Where a person having charge of a vehicle or animal is apprehended by a Constable for an offence under this Act, it shall be lawful for that or any other Constable to take charge of such vehicle or animal, and to deposit the same in some place of safe custody until the termination of the proceedings or until the Justice shall direct such vehicle or animal to be delivered to the person charged or to the owner, and the reasonable costs of such detention, including those of Veterinary treatment where such treatment is required, shall, in the event of a conviction in respect of the said animal, be recoverable from the owner summarily as a civil debt, or, where the owner himself is convicted shall be part of the costs of the case.

Production of animal for inspection by Justice; penalty for default.

8. Where proceedings are instituted under this Act, it shall be lawful for the Justice to issue a summons directed to the owner or possessor of the animal requiring him to produce the animal either at or before the hearing of the case, as may be stated in the summons, for the inspection of the Justice, if such production is possible without cruelty, and, in default of such production, such owner or possessor shall be subject to a penalty of twenty-five dollars and shall be liable for, and pay, the costs of any adjournment rendered necessary by such default.

Penalty for failure to provide and use pritchets or support on carts, etc.

9 Every cart or other vehicle with shafts, used for draft purposes, shall be provided with a sufficient pritchets or support which shall be placed, when the vehicle is stationary, under the shafts thereof, and in such manner as to keep the animal tackled to such vehicle free from the weight of the load thereon. Any person driving any cart or vehicle not provided with such pritchets or support, or neglecting to use the same when necessary, shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding ten dollars.

Exclusion of persons under sixteen from slaughter-houses, etc.

10. No person under the age of sixteen years shall be admitted to, or permitted to be or remain in, any yard, enclosure, building or place, wherein slaughtering, or the cutting up of the carcass of any animal is proceeding.

Segregation of animals awaiting slaughter.

11. No animal shall be slaughtered within the sight or hearing of any other animal awaiting slaughter.

Penalty.

Any person contravening or permitting contravention of section 10 or section 11 shall forfeit and pay a penalty not exceeding twenty-five dollars.

Restrictions on right to kill, etc., animals found at large.

12. Notwithstanding anything in any law heretofore existing to the contrary, it shall not be lawful for any person to shoot at, kill or wound any animal found at large unless such animal is doing damage or causing unreasonable annoyance, or there is reasonable cause to believe that it is then about to do damage, and such shooting, killing, or wounding is necessary to prevent such damage, or unless some other reasonable cause or necessity can be shown for such shooting, killing or wounding; and in any proceeding by the owner of such animal, or under the provisions of this Act, it shall lie upon the person so shooting at, killing or wounding to show the necessity of the same, and otherwise such shooting, killing, or wounding shall be deemed a violation of the section 1 of this Act.

13. The person who shall, from time to time, be by writing appointed the chief agent of the corporate body known as "The Society for Protection of Animals" shall, with the approval of the Governor in Council, have, in the exercise of his office as such agent, all the powers of a police constable; and such approval may from time to time be given for such periods and upon such conditions as to the Governor in Council may appear expedient.

Powers of chief agent of Society for Protection of Animals.

14. Any duly appointed Chief Agent of the Society for Protection of Animals authorized as Constable under section 13 of this Act, or any Constable, may, at all reasonable times, visit places other than dwelling-houses, or go on board ships wherein or where animals are being disembarked, detained, delivered for transportation, or are being carried or kept, or are slaughtered, for the purpose of detecting or preventing violations of this Act. Any person who shall prevent or obstruct such Agent or Constable in the performance of his duty in the premises shall forfeit and pay a penalty not exceeding twenty-five dollars.

Penalty for obstructing search by chief agent or constable.

15. Proceedings for offences against this Act may be instituted by any person within three calendar months after the date when such offence shall have been committed, and shall be begun by complaint, which need not be in writing, which shall be heard and passed upon in a summary way by any Justice of the Peace; and upon conviction, the offender shall pay such penalty, damages, or compensation as shall be adjudged within the provisions of this Act, together with costs.

Time for and mode of instituting proceedings under this Act.

Penalties and compensation, disposal of.

16. Penalties under this Act shall be paid over, one-half to the "Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals," and the other half to the Minister of Finance for the use of the Colony. The damages or compensation and costs referred to in section 15 shall be paid to the person to whom they shall of right appertain.

Penalties and compensation. Recovery by distress. Imprisonment in default.

17. In every case of conviction under this Act, where the penalty, or the amount awarded as compensation or damages (with costs if any) shall not be paid immediately on conviction, or within such time as the Justice shall appoint, the same may be recovered by distress of the offender's goods and chattels; or the Justice may commit him to prison, with or without hard labour, for a period not exceeding three months, unless payment be sooner made.

Search warrant.

18. Whenever it shall be made to appear on oath to any Justice that an offence against this Act has been committed or permitted in any building, or enclosure, or any premises, or on board any ship, such Justice shall issue a warrant directed to any Constable or to any Agent of the "Society for the Protection of Animals," to search such building, or enclosure, or such premises; and if it be found that an offence against this Act is being committed or has shortly before been committed, to arrest the offender and bring him before such Justice but such search shall not be made after sunset unless authorized in such warrant.

Animals injured by train; duty of engine-driver.

19. Whenever an animal is injured by a train, or locomotive engine, it shall be the duty of the Engine-driver, if the animal is injured beyond cure, forthwith to kill, or cause to be killed, such animal; and to report such injury or killing to the nearest Justice of the Peace, Station Agent or Police Officer, who shall thereupon give public notice of the fact in such manner as may be most expedient.

Proviso,

Provided that the necessity for such killing shall be concurred in by some train hand, passenger on the train, or resident in the locality where the animal has been injured, and who shall have seen the injured animal.

Provided also that the killing of an animal under such circumstances shall not in any way affect the liability which the Railway Company or any other person may have incurred by reason of such injury.

Any person failing to comply with the provisions of ^{Penalty.} this section shall, upon conviction, forfeit and pay a sum not exceeding twenty-five dollars.

20. Whenever an animal is injured by an automobile or ^{Animals injured by automobile or motor-cycle ;} motor cycle it shall be the duty of the person who is driving ^{duty of driver.} such automobile or riding such motor cycle at the time of such injury, if the animal is injured beyond cure, forthwith to kill or cause to be killed such animal, and report such injury or killing to the nearest Justice of the Peace, Station Agent, or Police Officer who shall thereupon give public notice of the fact in such manner as may be most expedient.

21. In the exercise of his jurisdiction for the purposes of ^{Powers of a Justice.} this Act a Justice of the Peace shall have all the powers of a Magistrate under the provisions of the Imperial Act 42 and 43 Vic., Cap. 49, save as is by this Act otherwise provided.

22. In this Act, unless the context otherwise requires, or ^{Interpretation of terms.} it is otherwise expressly provided.

(a) The expression "animal" means any domestic or ^{"Animal."} captive animal ;

(b) The expression "domestic animal" means any horse, ^{"Domestic animal."} mule, ass, bull, sheep, pig, goat, dog, cat, or fowl, or any other animal of whatsoever kind or species, and whether a quadruped or not, which is tame or which has been or is being tamed to serve some purpose for the use of man.

"Captive animal."

(c) The expression "captive animal" means any animal (not being a domestic animal) of whatsoever kind or species, and whether a quadruped or not, including any bird, fish or reptile, which is in captivity or confinement, or which is maimed, pinioned, or subjected to any appliance or contrivance for the purpose of hindering or preventing its escape from captivity or confinement.

"Horse," "Bull,"
"Sheep," "Pig,"
"Dog," "Cat,"
"Fowl."

(d) The expression "horse" includes any mare, gelding, pony, foal, colt, filly, or stallion; the expression "bull" includes any cow, bullock, heifer, calf, steer or ox; the expression "sheep" includes any lamb, ewe, or ram; the expression "pig" includes any boar or sow; the expression "dog" includes any bitch, saplin, or puppy; the expression "cat" includes a kitten; and the expression "fowl" includes any cock, hen, chicken, capon, turkey, goose, gander, duck, drake, guinea-fowl, peacock, pea-hen, swan, or pigeon.

"Constable."

(e) The expression "Constable" shall include Officers of the Constabulary force of Newfoundland.

Repeal.

23. Chapter 69 of the Consolidated Statutes of Newfoundland (Second Series), entitled "Of Cruelty to Animals" and the Act 5 Edward VII, Cap. 15, entitled "An Act to amend the law respecting Cruelty to Animals," are hereby repealed.

Short title.

24. This Act may be cited as "The Protection of Animals Act, 1914."

CAP. IV.

An Act to apply to this Colony the Law of England in relation to the suppression of what is known as the White Slave Traffic.

[PASSED MARCH 11, 1914.]

SECTION 1.—English law as to offences made pursuant to International Convention for Suppression of White Slave Traffic to be the law of the Colony. Proviso.

WHEREAS by Chapter 63 of the Consolidated Statutes Preamble.
(Second Series), it is provided that the Law of England as to crimes and offences shall be the law of the Colony so far as the same can be applied, and that all amendments of said law shall, after twelve months from the passing thereof, be the law of the Colony;

And whereas by the International Convention for the suppression of the traffic known as the White Slave Traffic, the Government of Great Britain has agreed to make certain acts punishable offences, and this Colony has assented to the Convention coming into force herein.

Be it therefore enacted by the Governor, the Legislative Enacting clause.
Council and House of Assembly, in Legislative Session convened, as follows:—

1. The law of England relating to crimes and offences made pursuant to said Convention shall be the law of this Colony so far as the same can be applied; subject to such amendments, alterations and further enactments of the Imperial Parliament as may hereafter be made, and which shall, after twelve months from the passing thereof respectively, be the law of this Colony: English law as to offences made pursuant to International Convention for Suppression of White Slave Traffic to be law of the Colony.
Provided that between Proviso.
the time of the passing of any law and its coming into force in this Colony the law as it previously stood shall continue to be in force therein.

CAP. V.

An Act to provide for the Investigation of Combines and Monopolies.

[PASSED MARCH 11, 1914].

SECTION 1.—Interpretation of terms.

2.—Governor in Council may appoint Commissioners.

3.—Powers of Commissioners.

Enacting clause.

BE it enacted by the Governor, the Legislative Council and House of Assembly, in Legislative Session convened, as follows:—

Interpretation of terms.

1. In this Act, unless the context otherwise requires, “Combine” means any contract, agreement, arrangement, or combination which has, or is designed to have, the effect of increasing, or fixing, the price or rental of any article of trade or commerce, or the cost of the storage or transportation thereof, or of restricting competition in or of controlling the production, manufacturing, storage, sale or supply thereof, to the detriment of consumers or producers of such article of trade or commerce, and includes the acquisition, leasing, or otherwise taking over or obtaining, by any person, to the end aforesaid, of any control over, or interest in the business, or any branch of the business, of any other person, and includes what is known as “a trust, monopoly or merger.”

Governor in Council may appoint Commissioners.

2. Whenever the Governor in Council deems it expedient to cause enquiry to be made into or concerning any matter of an alleged combine, the Governor may, by commission, confer upon Commissioners or persons by whom such enquiry is, by the said Commission, to be conducted, the power of summoning before them any party or witness, and of requiring them to give evidence on oath, orally or in writing, and to produce such documents or things as such Commissioners, may require in the investigation of the matters into which they are appointed to examine.

3. The said Commissioners shall then have the same ^{Powers of Commissioners.} power to enforce the attendance of such witnesses and to compel them give evidence, as is vested in any Court of Law in civil cases; and any wilfully false statement made by any such witness on oath or affirmation shall be a misdemeanour punishable in the same manner as wilful perjury. But the witness or party shall not be compelled to answer any question by his answer to which he might render himself liable to a criminal prosecution.

Preamble

WHEREAS the Newfoundland Railway and Train-Ferry Syndicate, Limited, through their Attorney, Harry Cranfuird Thompson, have made a proposition to the Government of Newfoundland for the construction of a railway across the Isthmus of Avalon, in the Island of Newfoundland, from Rantem, or from such other port in Trinity Bay as may be found desirable, to Little Southern Harbor, or such other port in Placentia Bay as may be found desirable, with the intention of operating a Train-Ferry service therefrom to Louisburg, in Cape Breton, or such other port as may be found desirable, and also for the construction of a railway from Humbermouth, Bay of Islands, to South West Arm, Green Bay, with a branch therefrom to White Bay, with the intention of operating a Train-Ferry service from the said Bay of Islands to Gaspe, in the Province of Quebec, or to such otherport or ports as may seem desirable, and the said Government have agreed to request the Legislature to grant to the said Syndicate and their assigns certain powers, and to make to them and their assigns certain concessions for the purposes of the said Railways and the said Train-Ferries;

And whereas it is desirable that the said powers should be granted and the said concessions made subject to the conditions and provisions hereinafter set forth;

Enacting clause. Be it therefore enacted by the Governor, the Legislative Council and House of Assembly, in Legislative Session convened, as follows:—

Power of Company to construct railway.

1. The Newfoundland Railway and Train-Ferry Syndicate, Limited, (hereafter called the "Company"), and their assigns, may lay out, construct and operate a railway across the Isthmus of Avalon from Rantem, or from such other port in Trinity Bay as may hereafter be selected by the Company or their assigns, to Little Southern Harbor or such other port in Placentia Bay as may hereafter be selected by the Company or their assigns, with the right to put in a Train-Ferry Slip in connection therewith, at some convenient point at or near Burin, and may also lay out, construct, and operate a railway from Humbermouth, Bay of Islands, to South West Arm, Green Bay, with a branch line therefrom to White Bay, the preliminary survey for such last-mentioned railway having already been made and the railway line approximately located.

2. The Company or their assigns may enter into and upon any Crown lands or upon the lands of any person or corporation whatsoever, lying in the intended route or line of the said railways, without previous license therefor; and may make surveys, examinations or other arrangements on said lands necessary for fixing the sites of the said railways and set out or ascertain such parts of the lands as may be required for the said railways.

Power to enter lands.

3. The Government shall grant to the Company or their assigns, free of charge, from the unoccupied Crown lands of the Colony, land for the said railways to the extent of one hundred feet on each side from the centre of the railway tracks along the whole course of the said railways and, in addition, a block of freehold land and land covered with water five square miles in extent and with a sea frontage of one mile, if such frontage be available, in ungranted Crown lands at each of the terminal ports of the said railways for terminal facilities, docks, wharves, cold storage plants, smoke houses, fertilizers, factories, hotels, town sites and other purposes connected with the undertaking; provided that the said blocks of freehold land shall not be granted to the Company until the completion of the said railway, and provided also that all necessary and usual reservations for the people shall be made in the said grants, including such portions as shall be required for the erection of workmen's cottages.

Government to grant lands for certain purposes.

4. The said Isthmus of Avalon Railway shall be commenced within three years and shall be completed within four years from the date hereof, and the said Bay of Islands and Green Bay Railway shall be commenced within five years from the date of completion of the said Isthmus of Avalon Railway, and shall be completed within three years from the date of said commencement,

Time for commencement of construction.

Power to expropriate lands—and respecting grant of harbor privileges.

5. Whenever the said railway lines shall run through private property the Company or their assigns may enter, take possession of, and hold such lands as may be necessary for the said railways to the extent and for the purpose aforesaid, and upon the lands aforesaid the Company and their assigns may construct the said railways; provided that where the said lines run through private property, the Company and their assigns shall, before entry and appropriation, give notice to the owner, of the situation, extent, and dimension of the land so to be taken and appropriated, and shall, at the same time, tender an amount considered by the Company or their assigns sufficient to indemnify such owner. If such tender be accepted, the Company or their assigns may proceed to take and appropriate the said lands; but if the tender be declined, the Company or their assigns may proceed to arbitration in the manner hereinafter provided, and may then take and appropriate the said lands and proceed to construct the said railways thereon.

The Government may also grant to the Company or their assigns, if there should not be sufficient ungranted Crown lands for the said two blocks of one mile each of sea frontage at each of the said terminals, such water lots and harbour privileges as in the opinion of the Governor in Council may be necessary for the purposes of their business, the payment for the same to be settled by arbitration between the Government and the Company or their assigns, and where private property may be required by the Company or their assigns for the purposes of shipping and steamship business in connection with their said railways, the same may be taken by them or their assigns; and the provisions herein contained for the ascertainment by arbitration of the damage caused to the parties whose rights shall have been affected by the taking of land for the purposes of the said lines of railway shall apply equally to waterside lands and premises taken as aforesaid.

Arbitration clause.

6. For the purpose of ascertaining the damage that may be occasioned to any person whose interest in any land or tenement or whose business may be in any way effected under the provisions hereof, unless the same be agreed upon between the said party and the Company or their assigns, which agreement the Company is hereby authorized to make, the Company or their assigns shall appoint one arbitrator, the party interested shall appoint another, and the Supreme Court of the Island or a Judge thereof a third, which three persons, or any two of them, shall determine the amount of compensation, if any, to be paid to such party according to his interest therein, and in case such person shall refuse or neglect to appoint an arbitrator within seven days after notice in writing so to do from the other two arbitrators, such two arbitrators shall name a third arbitrator, and the award of any two of them shall be final and binding; and the said arbitrators shall be sworn before a Stipendiary Magistrate to do justice between the parties, and may summon and require the attendance before them of all parties interested in the property to be appraised or in the damages to be ascertained by them, the agents of such parties respectively, and also all necessary witnesses, and require the production of all deeds and papers or other evidence to establish the interest, possessory or otherwise, of any party claiming compensation as aforesaid; and may examine upon oath, to be administered by any one of the arbitrators, all such parties, or their agents, and all witnesses, touching the matters to be inquired into by such arbitrators. Upon the making of such award the Company or their assigns shall forthwith pay to the party in whose favour the same shall be made, the sum therein stated as the amount of compensation due to such party. In all cases the arbitrators shall hold their meetings at some place within the Colony.

7. In the event of the death, absence from Newfoundland, disqualification, or refusal to act, of any one or more of the persons so named or appointed as arbitrators, or of his or their being withdrawn or declining to proceed, his or their place shall be filled in like manner, and the person or persons named or appointed instead of the arbitrator or arbitrators so dying, absent, or disqualified, being withdrawn or declining to proceed, shall have and exercise all and the like

powers and authority as are herein provided in regard to the arbitrators first named and so on as often as required, until the award is made and the reference closed.

Appointment of arbitrator for person resident abroad, etc.

8. If the party or parties interested be unknown, or being resident abroad, or absent from the Colony, have no known agent therein, or be under any legal disability or reside in a locality beyond the reach of ordinary and speedy communication, then upon application to a Judge of the Supreme Court by the Company or their assigns, supported by an affidavit of some officer of the Company or their assigns, setting forth the facts, and by such other proof as may be deemed necessary, the Judge shall make such order for the appointment of an arbitrator to act on behalf of such party as he shall deem proper; and the Judge may make it a part of the order that special public notices shall be given in local and foreign newspapers, and may give directions as to the manner, time and number of such publications and after the conditions so prescribed shall have been complied with, the Judge may appoint an arbitrator as aforesaid.

Power of Company as to wharves, docks, etc.

9. The Company or their assigns may, for the purposes of their business, acquire and hold water lots, and may build, acquire, mortgage and operate docks and elevators, and may collect wharfage and store charges for the use of its works and buildings.

Power to take materials from Crown lands.

10. Whenever stone, gravel, earth, sand, timber or water is required for the construction of the said lines of railway, or any part thereof, the Company or their assigns, when they satisfy the Governor in Council that such material cannot be obtained upon their right of way, within a reasonable distance from the work for which same is required, may enter into and upon waste and unoccupied Crown lands and take such materials therefrom as may be necessary for the use of the said railways; and the Company or their assigns may fell or remove trees standing in any woods, lands or forests by or through which the said lines of railway may pass, to the distance of six rods from either side thereof.

11. All construction material, machinery, and equipment necessary for the purposes of the construction and establishment of the said railways, or of the said Train-Ferries and Train-Ferry Slips and for the original equipment thereof, and for all docks, wharves, terminals or other incidental work of whatsoever kind in connection with the said railways and the equipment of such works (but not in substitution for old equipment) shall be admitted into Newfoundland free of duty. Exemption from duties of certain materials.

12. During the period of twenty years from the date hereof, the following articles when imported into the Colony by the Company or their assigns for use in connection with their business but not for sale, shall, upon such certificate as may be required by the Minister of Finance and Customs, be admitted into the Colony free of duty, that is to say :— And supplies.

- (a) All plant, machinery, implements, apparatus, and materials imported by the Company or their assigns, necessary for the original construction of cold storage plants, smoke houses, factories, and hotels, and for the extension thereof, but not in substitution for old ;
- (b) Ammonia for refrigerator purposes ;
- (c) Vegetable oils for use in curing fish ;
- (d) Tin material for cans, and solder ;
- (e) Gasoline engines and kerosene oil engines and any kind of internal combustion engine.
- (f) Gasolene and kerosene oil when used for driving engines and machinery.

13. All train-ferries and all slips and vessels belonging to the Company or their assigns, and worked in connection with said lines of railway shall, for the period of twenty years, be exempt from the payment of light or harbor dues and shall also be exempt from compulsory pilotage save in ports where compulsory pilotage shall be in operation at the date hereof. Exemption of company's vessels from light and harbor dues, etc.

Power to own and run steamships and train-ferries.

14. The Company and their assigns may own, hire, run or otherwise arrange for or control steamships and train-ferries for carrying freight and passengers to and from any port with which the said lines of railway connect and to and from any port in the United Kingdom, Canada, United States, or elsewhere.

Freight and baggage in transit to be exempt from duty.

15. At all times during the active operation of the said railways and steamship lines, all goods, whether freight or express matter or passengers' baggage or effects in transit through Newfoundland, shall be exempt from duty; provided that such Customs regulations as may, from time to time, be made by proper authority, shall have been complied with in respect of such goods.

General plan of route to be furnished to Government.

16. The Company or their assigns shall furnish to the Government of Newfoundland within two years from the passing hereof, maps and plans, signed by the general manager of the Company or their assigns, and showing thereon, subject to such alterations as may hereafter be decided upon by the Board of Directors of the Company or their assigns, the general line of route both of the said Isthmus of Avalon Railway and the said Bay of Islands to Green Bay Railway.

Company to have exclusive franchise for limited period.

17. The Government, during the periods allowed by section 4 hereof for the commencement and completion of the said railways referred to therein, will not grant to any Company or Corporation or any person or persons, except the Company and their assigns, authority or permission to build a railway from Trinity Bay to Placentia Bay across the said Isthmus of Avalon, or to build a railway from Bay of Islands to Green Bay.

Power to promote another company to carry on undertaking.

18. The Company may, at any time, hereafter, form another Company or Corporation having for its object, amongst other things the carrying into effect the powers and concessions hereby granted and the building and operation of the said railways, train-ferries and steamships hereby authorized and empowered to be built and operated and upon the formation of such Company or Corporation the powers and concessions hereby granted shall be thenceforth construed and have effect in all respects as if the aforesaid powers and concessions granted hereby had been granted to such Company or Corporation and not to the Company.

19. If the Company or their assigns do not commence and complete said railways or either of them within the periods provided in section 4 hereof, then, in such case, all the provisions herein contained with regard to said railways respectively, or whichever of them shall not have been commenced and completed as herein provided within the period allowed, shall cease and determine and all the lands granted hereunder in respect thereof shall revert to and vest in the Crown, and, in either of such cases, the Company shall not be entitled to any compensation for the same, or for any matter arising out of, or connected with, the provisions herein contained, or the work of the Company or their assigns on the said railways, or either of them.

Determination of rights granted in certain events.

It shall be lawful for any Constable when authorized in writing by a Stipendiary Magistrate, or Medical Health Officer or any Inspector to enter any store or other place where any of the articles referred to in this Act are kept or exposed for sale, and to take any reasonable sample of any such article for testing or analysis. Provided however that it shall be lawful only to take such sample of the following of the articles herein referred to namely:—Vegetables, flour, milk, bread, butter, confectionery, molasses, oleo, sugar, jam, salted pork, and beef and such other articles as may from time to time be named by the Governor in Council.

Any person obstructing such Constable or Officer shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding one hundred dollars or in default of payment to imprisonment for a period not exceeding thirty days.

The person taking or purchasing any article with the intention of submitting it to analysis shall, after the purchase shall have been completed, forthwith notify to the seller or to his agent selling the article. his intention to have the same analysed, and shall offer to divide the article into three parts to be there and then divided, and each part to be marked and sealed or fastened up in such manner as its nature will permit, and shall, if required to do so, proceed accordingly, and shall deliver one of the parts to the seller or his agent. He shall afterwards retain one of the said parts for future comparison, and submit the third part, if he deems it right, to the Analyst to have it analysed.

14. If any Officer shall apply to purchase any article of food exposed for sale or on sale on any premises or in any shop or store, and shall tender the price for the quantity which he shall require for the purpose of analysis, not being more than shall be reasonably requisite, and the person exposing the same for sale shall refuse to sell the same to such Officer, such person shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding twenty-five dollars, or in default of payment to imprisonment for a term not exceeding one month.

Penalty for refusal to sell for analysis.

15. The Governor in Council on the recommendation of the Medical Health Officer may, for the purpose of analysis, lay down standards in relation to all articles of food under this Act: such standards shall on publication in the Royal Gazette as a regulation under this Act have the force of law as if embodied in this Act.

Governor in Council may lay down standards for food.

16. Any party feeling aggrieved by any conviction under this Act may appeal to the Supreme Court, subject to the following condition, that the appellant shall give to the Magistrate within seven days notice of his intention so to appeal, and shall enter into recognizance with two sufficient sureties before the said Magistrate conditioned to appear at the first ensuing session of the Supreme Court, and to prosecute such appeal with effect, and to abide by the judgment of the said Court thereupon, and to pay such penalty and costs and perform such other act or comply with such conditions as may be then ordered or imposed.

CAP. XVII.

An Act Respecting the Operation of Saw Mills.

[PASSED MARCH 11, 1914].

SECTION

- 1.—License to bona fide fisherman to operate specified class of saw mill.
Conditions.
- 2.—Annual licenses to present operators on “three-mile” limit.
- 3.—“Board measure” equivalents.

SECTION

- 4.—Governor in Council may prohibit rinding of growing trees.
- 5.—Penalty clause.
- 6.—Power to Governor in Council to reserve Crown Lands from timber cutting.
- 7.—Repeal.

Enacting clause.

BE it enacted by the Governor, the Legislative Council and House of Assembly, in Legislative Session convened, as follows:—

License to bona fide fisherman to operate specified class of saw mill.

1. Any bona fide fisherman who wishes to operate a saw mill for the purposes of preparing staves or heading for making barrels for fishery requirements, or for the making of shingles, lobster laths or lobster boxes, whose whole cut of timber for other purposes does not exceed 10,000 feet board measure in any one year, may obtain, free of cost, a license to operate a saw mill for such purposes, and any other purpose in such quantity, subject to the following conditions:—

Conditions.

(a) The license may be granted by the Minister of Agriculture and Mines for one year, from the 30th of November, upon the application of the bona fide fisherman, as aforesaid, who shall set forth in his application that he is such fisherman, and also the situation of his mill, its capacity, and the period during which it has been in operation. The Minister of Agriculture and Mines may, in his discretion renew the said license annually.

(b) The licensee shall make returns to the Department of Agriculture and Mines, quarterly, or at such periods as may be required by the Minister of Agriculture and Mines, sworn to by him or his agent, showing the quantity disposed of or sold of all sawn lumber, timber, railway car stuff, ship timber and knees, shingles, laths, cordwood or bark, or any other product of timber in whatever form the same may be disposed of, or sold, by him during such quarter or other period, and the price or value thereof, under a penalty for every default of twenty dollars, to be recovered in a summary manner before a Stipendiary Magistrate or Justice of the Peace.

- (c) The licensee shall prevent unnecessary destruction of growing timber on the part of his men, and shall exercise strict and constant supervision to prevent the origin and spread of fires.
- (d) The license shall entitle the licensee to operate a saw mill and to cut timber therefor on Crown Land, and to purchase timber so cut and to manufacture the same in his mill in the manner, and to the quantity hereinbefore provided.
- (e) The licensee shall pay annually a royalty of ten cents per thousand on all shingles manufactured in or by his mill.
- (f) No person, without obtaining a license as hereinbefore provided, shall operate a saw mill of the class described in this section after six months from the passing of this Act, under a penalty not exceeding twenty dollars for every day when such mill is so operated; and all such licenses issued before the thirtieth of November of the present year shall terminate on the said date, on which date also the first royalty under said licenses shall be due and payable.
- (g) Before the granting of a new license three months notice shall be given in the Royal Gazette and one weekly paper published in this Colony, and the Department of Agriculture and Mines shall forward a copy of such notice to the Representatives in the Legislature for the District in which the mill sought to be licensed is situated.

Annual licenses to present operators on "three-mile limit."

2. It shall be lawful for the Minister of Agriculture and Mines to issue licenses to persons or companies who are at present operating mills on what is known as the three mile limit and are not the holders of timber or pulp licenses under the Crown Lands' Act, to cut timber and to operate saw mills for one year from the thirtieth of November, which said licenses shall be renewable at the discretion of the Minister of Agriculture and Mines on payment of a fee of five dollars. The licensee of any such license shall pay, as a royalty, the sum of one dollar per thousand feet, board measure, on all lumber sawn or manufactured in the mill operated under authority thereof.

(a) The said license shall terminate on the 30th November in each year. The fee for the said license shall be affixed thereto in stamps. The license shall be returned to the Minister of Agriculture and Mines before the 30th of November in each year accompanied by the amount of the fee. The absence of a stamp on said license, with the date of the year in which the same was affixed, shall be conclusive evidence that the said license was not renewed for the year in which such stamp was not affixed.

(b) The license shall be produced by the licensee to an Inspector or other person authorized by the Minister of Agriculture and Mines.

(c) Such license shall be subject to all the provisions of the Crown Lands' Acts as to scale, making returns, inspection of books, for date, payment of royalty, and otherwise, except that return for royalty shall be the quantity actually manufactured in the mill, and such other conditions as to the area in which the licensee is to cut as may be prescribed by the Minister of Agriculture and Mines.

- (d) Such license shall not convey any exclusive right to cut over any particular land, but shall merely permit the licensee to cut logs from Crown lands for the purpose of having the same sawn or manufactured in the mill licensed, and such right to cut shall be in common with the public, but he may also purchase logs so cut by any person entitled to cut on Crown lands, and the license shall not convey any right whatever to water power.
- (e) Application for such license shall be made to the Minister of Agriculture and Mines accompanied by a fee of five dollars, and, before the issue of said license, the Minister of Agriculture and Mines shall cause to be published for a period of thirty days, by affixing the same at a Post Office or other public building in the neighbourhood of the situation of the mill proposed to be operated under such license, a notice setting forth the fact that such license has been applied for.
- (f) It shall be lawful for the Minister of Agriculture and Mines at any time after the issue of such license to revoke the same upon the application or petition of any persons who shall satisfy him, by any evidence, or in any manner, that the grant of such license, or the operation of such mill, is contrary to the public interest.
- (g) No person, not being a holder of a timber or pulp license under the Crown Lands' Act shall, without obtaining a license as in this Act provided, operate after one month from the passing of this Act a saw mill for the manufacture of timber cut on Crown land, under a penalty not exceeding twenty dollars for every day when such mill is so operated; and all such licenses issued before the thirtieth day of November of the present year shall terminate on the said date, on which date also the first royalty under said licenses shall be due and payable.

“Board measure” equivalents. 3. In estimating board measures, the following equivalents shall be used:

6,000 half drum staves	shall equal	1,000 ft. board measure.
4,500 drum staves	“	1,000 “
2,000 herring brl. staves	“	1,000 “
1,600 tierce staves	“	1,000 “
1,400 fish cask staves	“	1,000 “
7,000 laths	“	1,000 “
10,000 shingles	“	1,000 “

Heading to be estimated in feet, board measure.

10,000 tub staves shall equal 1,000 feet board measure.

A tub shall not exceed 30 lbs.

Governor in Council may prohibit rinding of growing trees.

4. The Governor in Council may, when it shall be made to appear to him to be for the interest of the Colony, by Proclamation to be published in the Royal Gazette, prohibit the rinding of growing or standing trees on the public lands of the Colony, or portion of the same, or lands held under license, lease or grant, for the purpose of taking away the rinds of the said trees for any purpose whatever.

Penalty clause.

5. The penalty for the infraction of any of the provisions and conditions of this Act, where such penalty has not been fixed by any preceding section of this Act, or by the Crown Lands' Act, 1903, shall be a fine not exceeding ten dollars for each infraction thereof. All penalties under this Act may be sued for, in the name of the Minister of Agriculture and Mines, before a Stipendiary Magistrate or Justice of the Peace, by any Timber Inspector or other person authorized by the Minister of Agriculture and Mines.

6. The Governor in Council shall have the right to reserve, by Proclamation in the Royal Gazette, such sections or areas of Crown Land as may, from time to time, in the public interest, be deemed expedient, and to prohibit the cutting of timber on such lands for milling purposes, and the penalty for cutting timber on such lands shall be fixed and determined in such proclamation; provided, however, that no such reservation shall be made until public notice has been given to those residing in and near the locality in which the land proposed to be reserved is situated.

Power to Governor in Council to reserve Crown Lands from timber cutting.

7. The Act 6 Edward VII., cap. 28, entitled "An Act to restrict the erection of Saw Mills within three miles of the coastline of this Colony, and better to preserve such timber lands for the purposes of the fishery, for ship building, for fencing and for fire-wood," is hereby repealed.

Repeal.

Colony, under a penalty not exceeding four thousand dollars, to be recovered from the Master, Owner or other person on whose account such steamer shall have been sent to the fishery and subject to the proviso in the latter part of section 8.

Liability of owners for conveyance of crew to homes.

11. The owners of steamers shall be liable in the case of the crew of any steamer being paid off at the end of the voyage with a balance insufficient in amount to pay the fares of the crew to their respective homes to contribute a sum not exceeding four dollars, which when added to the amount paid the crew will be sufficient for the payment of the said fares.

Application of sections 1 to 4 of this Act.

12. The provisions of sections 1, 2, 3, and 4, of this Act, shall not, during the season of 1914, be held to apply to steamers registered in Canada, but on and after January 1st, 1915, this shall apply to all steamers prosecuting the seal fishery from, or bringing seals into, the Colony.

Inspection of boats.

13. On and after January 1st, 1915, no boats shall be taken on board any sealing steamer for use in the seal fishery unless they have been previously inspected by the Lloyd's Surveyor and certified by him as seaworthy, and no Officer of Customs shall clear any steamer for the seal fishery unless such certificate is produced before him.

Masters violating sections 6 and 8 to be incompetent to command sealing steamers.

14. Sealing Masters violating sections 6 and 8 of this Act shall be incompetent for two years after conviction for any offence thereunder to be employed to command steamers at the seal fishery, and no Customs Officer shall clear any ship with such person as Master within the period aforesaid

Date for clearance of sealing steamers.

15. No Customs Officer shall clear any ship for the seal fishery from any port North of St. John's, in the case of steel ships before the 13th day of March, and in the case of wooden ships before the 11th day of March; and in the case of ships sailing from St. John's, steel ships before the 12th day of March, and in the case of wooden ships before the 11th of March, or steamers sailing for the Gulf before the 9th day of March.

16. If any person shall feel himself aggrieved by any judgment of the Stipendiary Magistrate under this Act which exceeds $100 he shall be at liberty to appeal therefrom to the next sitting of the Supreme Court at St. John's or on Circuit: Provided that notice of the same shall be given to the Magistrate within forty-eight hours after such judgment shall have been delivered; and within five days thereafter, recognizances or other security, with or without sureties, at the option of such Magistrate, shall be entered into to prosecute the same without delay, and to pay such amount as may be awarded with costs: and provided further that where no appeal exists the provisions of section 14 shall not apply.

17. The Acts mentioned in the Schedule hereto are hereby repealed, in so far as the same are inconsistent with the provisions of this Act.
